

Much or many?

These are exercises to help you understand the difference between “much” or “many”. Good luck 😊 😊 😊

1) Name three examples for countable words

Apples, cars, pencils

2) Name three examples for words, which are not countable.

Peace, love, hate

3) Complete the sentence:

“I use many if the word behind it is countable and I use much if the word behind it is not countable”.

4) Much or many? Is it countable or not?

- Many books -> countable yes/no?
- Much food -> countable yes/no?
- Many people -> countable yes/no?
- Much milk -> countable yes/no?
- Many bananas -> countable yes/no?
- Much love -> countable yes/no?

5) Translate the following sentences by using much, many or a lot of.

→ Meine Freundin hat nicht gelernt aber sie hatte viel Glück bei dem Test.

My friend did not learn but she had a lot of luck at the test.

→ Ich und meine Schwester haben viele Klamotten in unserem Schrank.

Me and my sister have got many/ a lot of clothes on our closet.

→ Ich bekomme nicht viel Geld von meinen Eltern.

I do not get much money from my parents.

→ Mein Bruder spielt nicht mit vielen Puppen.

My brother doesn't play with many dolls.